Highlights: - Thailand still on the US watchlist for IP violations

- New alternative right over real estate called "Sub-Ing-Sitthi".
- Hopewell (Thailand) Co., Ltd. to be compensated by SRT and MOT.

Thailand legal news

• 26 April 2019:

- The Office of the U.S. Trade Representative (USTR) released annual Special 301 report on the adequacy and effectiveness of trading partners' protection of intellectual property rights. Thailand remains on the Watch List (WL), since it has been moved up from Priority Watch List (PWL) in 2017.

  *Lately, Thailand implemented defensive and supportive measures for intellectual property ("TP") in various aspects e.g. increasing efficiency for IP registration, providing the international trademark registration system under Madrid Protocol, amending patent laws, taking serious action to reduce infringement in both marketplace and internet.
- The poll regarding the status of Thai labour revealed that 95% of low income labours (less than THB 15,000) is in debt (approx. THB 158,855 per household) and 86.2% of them has no saving. Money (debt) is spent mostly on daily expenses and accommodation.

• 29 April 2019:

- The Office of Trade Competition Commission has launched the legal guideline to consider unfair behaviors of wholesale and retail businesses. This guideline will be opened for public hearing during 29 April – 28 May 2019, then will be concluded and enforced.

• 1 May 2019:

- The Minister of Transport ("MOT") prepared 5 options to compensate Hopewell (Thailand) Co., Ltd. ("HW") for termination of contract after the Supreme Administrative Court ordered State Railway of Thailand ("SRT") and MOT to pay THB 11.8 billion, plus 7.5% per annum interest. For more details regarding this case, please see the timeline below.

Year	Situation
1990	SRT signed concession contract with HW to build an elevated highway and rail system from central Bangkok to Don Mueang International Airport.
1992-1995	The project faced funding and other problems from government side e.g. economic recession and failure to hand over plots.
1995-1996	The project faced construction delays due to the aforesaid problems.
1998	SRT terminated the contract due to delayed construction.*
2004	HW filed a petition to the arbitration tribunal for MOT and SRT to pay THB 56 billion compensation for termination without the right to do so. HW also cited that major cause for delay was the failure of SRT to hand over land plots along the project's routes. The SRT counterclaimed for THB 200 billion compensation for loss of opportunity to utilize the constructions under this project.
2008	The arbitration tribunal ordered MOT and SRT to pay THB 11.88 billion plus 7.5% per annum interest to HW for unfairly contract termination.
2014	<ul> <li>SRT later filed the case to the Administrative Court, hoping to avoid the compensation.</li> <li>The Central Administrative Court overturned the arbitration award seeing that the arbitration tribunal lacked authority (HW's late filing). The court also ordered court fees to be refunded to MOT and SRT.</li> <li>HW appealed the ruling.</li> </ul>
2019	The Supreme Administrative Court overturned the lower court ruling and ordered the parties to comply with the arbitral award within 180 days of the ruling (SRT to pay THB 11.88 billion + 7.5% interest).

*These massive losses derive from many loopholes in the concession contract e.g. SRT has no right to terminate the contract when HW is unable to fulfill the terms and conditions.
